

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the first high-level economic event aimed at strengthening bilateral cooperation between the Republic of Iraq and the United Kingdom by reviewing investment and trade opportunities between the two countries and building effective communication bridges between Iraqi businessmen and international investors.

This forum represents a strategic platform bringing together a select group of decision-makers, business leaders, and local and international investors to discuss the most prominent economic challenges facing the business environment and explore innovative solutions to advance productive sectors, most notably energy, industry, and communications.

This two-day forum will be held in 28 – 29 July 2025 in London, the British capital.
